Guest Speaker: Jeffrey Struecker

Major Jeffrey Struecker, Task Force Ranger//U.S. Army Retired, is well known as a major participant in the event we all know as Black Hawk Down. Born in Fort Dodge, Iowa, he committed his life to Christ as a young teen, enlisted in the Army at the age of 18 and served ten years in the 75th Ranger Regiment. Jeff was involved in the Battle of Mogadishu in 1993, participated in the 1989 invasion of Panama (Operation Just Cause) and in Kuwait during Operation Desert Storm. In the Battle of Mogadishu, Somalia, Jeff, 24 years old and the squad leader, led the 3-vehicle convoy that returned, through intense fire, a wounded Ranger to their base, as portrayed in the movie BLACK HAWK DOWN. Jeff believed beyond a shadow of doubt there was no way to survive the situation.

Jeff is the author and co-author of numerous books; he and his wife Dawn, high school sweethearts, reside in Columbus, GA. with their five children.
